Summary of reasons
for classification:

The computer image file printout 140.jpg is classified as:
Objectionable.

The publication promotes and supports the exploitation of young persons for sexual purposes under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act). The image depicts a teenage girl being penetrated by an unseen man and is a photographic record of the sexual exploitation of a young person. Images such as these advance the idea that young persons are ready for adult forms of sexual activity and are available for adult sexual gratification. This image normalises the sexual availability of teenage girls for adult men.

The classification of this publication interferes with the freedom of expression, as set out in section 14 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. This outcome is consistent, however, with Parliament's intention that publications falling under section 3(2) of the FVPC Act are deemed to be objectionable. The classification is also a reasonable limitation on the freedom of expression that reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to limit the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of children and young persons for sexual purposes.
